THE SEBASTIAN – VAIL, A TIMBERS RESORT, DEBUTS “GRAND GALERIE PENTHOUSE”

Distinguished residence is a paragon of contemporary artistry in the ultimate luxury slopeside setting

Vail, Colorado (January 19, 2021) – The Sebastian – Vail, the award-winning luxury resort in the heart of Vail Village, is pleased to debut the Grand Galerie Penthouse, an expansive slopeside residence spanning more than 5,000 square feet with panoramic views of Vail Mountain and the Gore Range. Available to discerning travelers for the first time ever, the penthouse features an array of distinct features, including a premier art collection and a handcrafted Italian kitchen with custom finishes and appliances by Officine Gullo Firenze, one of the world’s leading luxury kitchen artisans.

“The Grand Galerie Penthouse offers a truly one-of-a-kind experience to travelers seeking the exclusivity and space of a private residence coupled with the services and amenities of a world-class luxury hotel,” stated Bryan Austin, General Manager at The Sebastian – Vail. “Guests will find that this elegant home, with 360-degree mountain views, offers both private serenity and ample room to comfortably accommodate their loved ones in an inspiring and sophisticated environment.”

Perfectly suited for groups of up to 14, the Grand Galerie Penthouse is specially curated to be the ultimate luxury residence, adorned with celebrated art at every turn. Designed by Mexico City-based contemporary studios, Gloria Cortina and Simon Hamui, in collaboration with Aspen-based Poss Architecture + Interiors, the well-appointed spaces feature original works from internationally renowned creatives such as Ralph Pucci, Sergio Hernández and Arturo Berned. In addition to the gourmet kitchen, the residence includes a spacious living room; a plush media room; five distinct bedrooms with their own private en suite bathrooms; a high-tech Sonos sound system throughout; an in-residence washer and dryer and a furnished lanai with panoramic mountain views. Nestled in the heart of the residence is a stunning dining space crowned with a cathedral skylight spanning the entire length of the room, allowing natural sunlight to fully illuminate the space during the day.

As part of their stay at the Grand Galerie Penthouse, guests will have complete access to the full suite of services at The Sebastian – Vail, including a personal concierge; slopeside ski valet services at the property’s Base Camp; private ski boot fittings for optimal skiing; as well as access to the hotel’s year-round heated mountain-view pool and hot tubs; state-of-the-art fitness center; two on-site food and beverage venues, Leonora and Lounge at Leonora; and Vail’s most luxurious spa, Bloom Spa. The Grand Galerie Penthouse also includes an exclusive food and beverage experience with daily provisions delivered directly from The Sebastian – Vail’s Executive Chef and a welcome basket featuring gourmet bites from local purveyors paired with a bottle of sparkling wine. Guests can enjoy additional amenities that bring elevated convenience to their stay, such as private chef services and pre-arrival grocery stocking, at additional costs.

Located in the charming enclave of Vail Village, known as the region’s gateway for outdoor sports, The Sebastian – Vail is the ideal choice for travelers eager to explore the region’s boundless adventures from golfing, fly fishing, cycling, rafting and hiking during the summer months to skiing, snowboarding, snowmobiling and snowshoeing on legendary terrain during the winter months.
